

Roof and gutters capture rain water which enters the water tank

Using Tank Talk® the water valve allows on-demand water releases to the creek

Sensors monitor the level of water in the tank

ONE BOX

Water levels in creek can be managed during flooding and dry seasons

Captured water can be used for flushing toilets

Tank Talk® is powered by the One Box® system